

5. If a recall is initiated, notification to CFIA and the Regional Health Authority is required with the following information:

- product name, code markings or lot numbers;
- total quantity of recalled product produced;
- total quantity of recalled product distributed up to this time;
- where recalled product has been distributed;
- quantity of product the customer still has in their possession;
- reason for recall.

Out of date