Seniors financial assistance programs
The Government of Alberta offers the following financial assistance programs for seniors:

• Alberta Seniors Benefit
• Special Needs Assistance for Seniors
• Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors
• Seniors Property Tax Deferral program

To apply for Alberta Seniors Benefit, Special Needs Assistance for Seniors, and Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors, you must complete a Seniors Financial Assistance application form. You need only apply once.

To apply for the Seniors Property Tax Deferral program, you must complete a Seniors Property Tax Deferral application and agreement form.

General eligibility
You are eligible to apply for the seniors financial assistance programs, if you:

• are 65 years of age or older;

• have lived in Alberta for at least three months immediately before applying;

and

• are a Canadian citizen, or have been admitted into Canada for permanent residence (landed or sponsored immigrant)

If you meet all of the above eligibility requirements, your level of assistance will be determined based upon the specific criteria for each program.

Income
The following Seniors Financial Assistance programs are income based:

• Alberta Seniors Benefit
• Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors
• Special Needs Assistance for Seniors

Your applicable income information is obtained directly from the Canada Revenue Agency, with your consent, and used to determine your eligibility for assistance.

The Seniors Property Tax Deferral program is not income based.
Alberta Seniors Benefit

The Alberta Seniors Benefit program provides a monthly income supplement to federal income sources including Old Age Security (OAS) and Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS).

Eligibility for a benefit is determined by:

- the type of accommodation you live in;
- your marital/cohabitation status;
- your income (combined with your spouse/partner’s income if applicable); and
- having lived in Canada for 10 years and receiving the federal OAS pension.

General eligibility

In general, a single senior with an annual income of $26,400 or less, and senior couples with a combined annual income of $43,000 or less, are eligible for a cash benefit. These income levels are guidelines only, and are for seniors whose income includes a full OAS pension.

Special Needs Assistance for Seniors

The Special Needs Assistance for Seniors program provides a lump-sum payment to eligible low-income seniors. This program provides assistance with allowable extraordinary personal expenses. A senior’s total annual income and the expense requested are used to determine the amount funded. The maximum assistance available is $5,000 in a benefit year.

Available assistance

Assistance is available for allowable special needs such as appliances, personal and some health expenses.

General eligibility

To be considered for the Special Needs Assistance for Seniors program, you must have applied to the Alberta Seniors Benefit program, or submit a Seniors Financial Assistance application. A single senior with a total combined annual income of $26,400 or less, or a senior couple with a total combined annual income of $43,000 or less may receive assistance.

Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors

The Dental Assistance for Seniors program provides basic dental coverage, according to an approved benefit schedule, to a maximum of $5,000 every five years.

The Optical Assistance for Seniors program provides assistance, to a maximum of $230, towards the purchase of prescription eyeglasses every three years.

Seniors who receive the Alberta Seniors Benefit are automatically enrolled. The amount of coverage you receive is based on your total annual income.
General eligibility
To be considered for the Dental and Optical Assistance programs, you must complete the Seniors Financial Assistance application form. A single senior with a total annual income of $31,675 or less, or a senior couple with a total combined income of $63,350 or less, may receive assistance.

How it works
Some service providers will direct bill our benefit administrators for the amount covered by the program, while some service providers may require you to pay the full bill, and then submit a claim to the benefit administrator for reimbursement. To find out how much of your dental/optical work is covered, and/or to submit a claim, you or your service provider may contact the benefit administrator.

Seniors Property Tax Deferral Program
The Seniors Property Tax Deferral program allows eligible senior homeowners to defer all or part of their annual residential property taxes through a low-interest home equity loan with the Alberta Government.

General eligibility
To qualify, your home must be your primary residence, where you live most of the time, and you must have a minimum of 25% equity in your home. This means all charges registered against your home in a Land Titles Office cannot exceed 75% of your home’s assessed value, as shown on your municipal assessment.

Interest
Interest charges start from the date the program pays your residential property taxes on your behalf to your municipality and end when your loan has been repaid in full. The interest rate is variable and is reviewed every six months in April and October.
How to apply
To apply for the Seniors Property Tax Deferral program, you must complete a Seniors Property Tax Deferral application and agreement form. You may apply at any time, however, to avoid late penalties, senior homeowners are encouraged to apply as early as possible before their residential property taxes are due. All registered owners must sign the application form.

Guaranteed Income Supplement
The Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) is available to seniors who receive the OAS pension and have little or no other income.

To be eligible for this supplement, you must be a resident of Canada. The amount of the supplement that you receive depends on:

- marital status, and
- total family income in the previous calendar year. If you are married or living common-law, the income of your spouse or common-law partner is included.

The GIS is added to the federal OAS payment each month. An application must be submitted to receive this benefit.

To continue receiving GIS benefits each year, you must submit a renewal form or file an income tax return by April 30. Couples must file separate income tax returns.

Allowance/Allowance for the Survivor
The allowance is paid to the spouse or common-law partner of a senior receiving GIS.

The Allowance for the Survivor is available to widowed spouses or surviving common-law partners who have little or no other income and who are between the ages of 60 and 64.

To be eligible you must:

- be age 60 through 64,
- have lived in Canada a minimum of 10 years after the age of 18,
- not be voluntarily separated or divorced from your spouse or common-law partner, and
- meet legal residence requirements.

The amount of the Allowance depends on a couple’s combined income in the previous calendar year.

People who may be eligible for the Allowance should apply six months before their 60th birthday. It may be applied for any time between ages 60 and 64 and can continue until the age of 65.
To continue receiving the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor, you must file an income tax return by April 30 each year. If you continue to be eligible, your Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor will automatically be renewed. If you do not file your return, you must complete a renewal form.

Canada Pension Plan
The federal government administers the Canada Pension Plan (CPP). You contribute to the CPP through employment or self-employment. There are different types of CPP benefits. Application forms are available at any Service Canada Centre by calling 1-800-277-9914, or on the website at www.servicecanada.gc.ca.

The most applicable CPP benefits for seniors are:

Retirement pension
You may be eligible for a retirement pension if you worked and have made at least one valid contribution to the CPP. The pension may start at age 65 or, as early as the month following your 60th birthday, at a reduced rate.

A spouse, or common-law partner can apply to share CPP retirement pension payments if both are aged 60 or more. Even if only one of you has been a contributor to the CPP, that pension can still be shared. Pension sharing can result in income tax savings.

Survivor benefits
There are three types of survivor benefits.

- The CPP death benefit is a one-time payment to, or on behalf of, the estate of a deceased CPP contributor.
- The survivor pension is a monthly pension paid to the surviving spouse or common-law partner of a deceased contributor.
- The surviving child’s benefit is a monthly benefit for dependent children of a deceased contributor. Children must be younger than 18, or if 18 to 25, must be in school full time.

For information on other CPP benefits, call Service Canada toll-free at 1-800-277-9914, or visit www.servicecanada.gc.ca

Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee

The Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee (OPGT) offers information and services about substitute decision making for adults that lack mental capacity, including planning for the future with a personal directive and enduring power attorney. The OPGT may act as guardian and/or trustee for adults who lack the capacity to make their own personal and/or financial decisions when there is no other person able, willing, or suitable to take on the role. The OPGT may also administer estates when someone has died and there is no one else to do so. In addition, the OPGT protects the assets of minors (under 18 years) where required by law or where a minor is a beneficiary but there is no trustee named. You can contact the OPGT for more information and help with the decision making options listed below.

Supported Decision Making Authorization

- Adults with capacity can authorize a trusted person(s) to assist them with finding information, making decisions, and communicating their decisions.
- May be helpful for people who face complex decisions or have difficulty communicating their decisions to others.

Co-Decision Making Order

- The adult has some capacity limitations but could make personal decisions with guidance and support from someone else.
- A co-decision making order may be appropriate if the assisted adult has a trusting, cooperative relationship with their co-decision maker(s).

Guardianship and Trusteeship Orders

- Court-appointed substitute decision makers for adults who no longer have the capacity to make personal and/or financial decisions on their own.

Personal Directive

A personal directive is a legal document that allows you to choose someone you trust to make personal decisions on your behalf if, in the future, you lose your ability to do so because of illness or injury. If you prepare this document, there is no need for your family to apply to be your guardian in the event you lose capacity.
Enduring Power of Attorney
An Enduring Power of Attorney is a legal document you can use to appoint someone to make financial and legal decisions on your behalf. A Power of Attorney is “enduring” if it states its power continues after mental incapacity or it can be written to only take effect when mental capacity is lost. If you prepare this document, there is no need for your family to apply to be your trustee in the event you lose capacity.

Office of the Alberta Health Advocates

As part of the Office of the Alberta Health Advocates, the Seniors’ Advocate helps seniors, their families, and their caregivers navigate the health care and continuing care systems and provides information on support programs and services for seniors. It also receives concerns and complaints about these systems and services, and makes referrals to the appropriate channels for resolution.

The Seniors’ Advocate will:

- Help seniors and their families understand and access the growing number of seniors’ services.
- Request inspections and investigations related to care in seniors’ facilities.
- Provide public education on the rights and interests of seniors.

The Health Advocate will:

- Build awareness about the Health Charter and what people can expect from the health system, and their responsibilities.
- Help people navigate the health system.
- Look into situations where people believe their interactions with the health system haven’t been consistent with the Health Charter.
- Redirect complaints to existing resolution mechanisms where appropriate.

Advanced Care Planning

Advance Care Planning (ACP) is a way to help you think about, talk about and document your wishes for health care. It is a process that can assist you in making healthcare decisions now and for in the future. If there is a time when you are unable to speak for yourself, it is important that your loved ones and your healthcare team understand your wishes for health care. It is important to begin Advance Care Planning conversations before you face a crisis or become seriously ill.

In Alberta, your ACP is documented on a legal document called a Personal Directive. In a Personal Directive you choose an alternate decision maker to be your agent – this person can collaborate with your healthcare team if you are unable to do so. Your agent makes healthcare decisions on your behalf, in keeping with your wishes.

Goals of Care Designations are used by your healthcare providers to describe the general aims of your health care and the preferred location of that care. In a medical emergency, your Goals of Care Designation guides your healthcare team to provide timely care that best reflects your health condition, the treatments that will be of benefit to you, and your own wishes and values. The Goals of Care Designation order is documented on an Alberta Health Services form by your physician or nurse practitioner and is recognized by all healthcare services.

For more information about Advanced Care Planning, talk to your healthcare provider or visit www.conversationsmatter.ca

Utilities Consumer Advocate

The Utilities Consumer Advocate (UCA) represents the interests of Alberta’s residential, farm, and small business electricity and natural gas consumers. The UCA works to ensure consumers have the information, representation, and protection they need to help them make informed choices in Alberta’s deregulated electricity and natural gas markets.

The UCA’s mediation team is available to answer consumer’s questions and provide detailed advice and information about the electricity and natural gas industry. Common topics include contracts, billing, and distribution fees to name a few. When consumers have exhausted known avenues of issue resolution, the UCA will investigate and mediate concerns with utility companies.

Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors

Dental Assistance for Seniors
The Dental Assistance for Seniors program provides basic dental coverage to a maximum of $5,000 per eligible senior, every five years.

Optical Assistance for Seniors
The Optical Assistance for Seniors program provides assistance of up to $230 per eligible senior, towards the purchase of prescription eyeglasses every three years.

Please see pages 5-6 for program details.
The Government of Alberta offers the Alberta Aids to Daily Living (AADL) program which assists Albertans with a long-term disability, chronic illness or terminal illness in maintaining independence in their communities through the provision of basic medical equipment and supplies to meet their clinically assessed needs.

You may be eligible for AADL benefits if you meet the following criteria:

• are an Alberta resident;
• have a valid Alberta Personal Health Number; and
• requires benefits due to a long-term disability, chronic illness or terminal illness. Long-term and chronic are defined as six months or longer.

An assessment by an AADL authorizer or specialty assessor determines the clinical need for medical equipment and supplies that an Albertan may be eligible for through this program. This may be a nurse, physical therapist, occupational therapist, respiratory therapist, audiologist or other health care professional who may work in a community health care centre, hospital, long-term care centre, home care program or private practice. Please contact Alberta Health Services to locate an AADL authorizer and consult the vendor lists on the AADL website to locate an AADL specialty assessor.

Note: Medical doctors are not authorizers and do not determine eligibility.

How does the program work?
AADL is a cost-share program. You pay 25 per cent of the cost of program benefits to a maximum of $500 per individual/family, per benefit year (July 1 to June 30). If you choose an upgraded item, you are also responsible for paying any additional amount.

Low-income Albertans, below qualifying income thresholds, are exempt from cost-sharing. Your authorizer or local community health care centre will have a Cost-Sharing Exemption Application for you to complete and submit to the address on the form.

If you are exempt from cost-sharing, your authorizer and vendor will be notified through the AADL system. If you choose an upgraded item, you are responsible for paying any additional costs regardless of cost-share status.

What is covered?
Only certain medical equipment and supplies are provided. You must be assessed and authorized for AADL benefits before you receive them. AADL cannot refund clients who purchase their own medical equipment and supplies before being assessed and authorized for equipment and supplies. Equipment and supplies supplies must be purchased from an AADL approved vendor within the province of Alberta, unless otherwise specified.

The program does not provide coverage for canes, reachers, foot orthotics, eyeglasses, prescription drugs, dental care or dentures.

Hearing aids

Hearing aids are provided to seniors and their dependants through AADL registered suppliers only, and cost-sharing applies. When visiting a hearing aid supplier, please ensure that they are registered with AADL as a vendor.

For more information about registered vendors, contact:

Benefit information:

- If you are a cost-share client, AADL contributes $900 towards one hearing aid only. If you are exempt from cost sharing, AADL will contribute up to $1,200 per affected ear. This does not include upgrades. If a more expensive hearing aid is purchased, you are responsible for the difference.
- With prior approval, AADL will provide a personal listening device instead of a hearing aid.

- Replacement of batteries is at your own cost.
- AADL will assist with the invoice cost of factory repairs for the hearing aid once per benefit year after the original purchase warranty expires.
- Minor servicing and additional fees charged by the hearing aid practitioner are at your own cost.

Medical/surgical supplies, prosthetics, orthotics, footwear, mobility and respiratory equipment

An AADL authorizer or specialty supplier must assess your need for equipment and supplies and complete an authorization form. Some items may require a physician’s prescription.

Program authorizers or specialty suppliers have complete lists of all items provided through AADL. A maximum number of benefits are available each year. For details on specific supplies and equipment, covered by AADL, contact Alberta Health Services or:

Alberta Health provides premium-free coverage for health-related services not covered by the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan through Alberta Blue Cross Coverage for Seniors. This coverage is available to all Albertans 65 years of age and older and their eligible dependants. Coverage for Seniors starts the first month after you turn 65.

Once you are registered with Alberta Health and your date of birth has been validated, you will be sent an Alberta Blue Cross card. To receive services, you must show your card.

Coverage for Seniors uses the same benefit year as Alberta Health – July 1 to June 30.

Ambulance services
Ambulance services refer to transportation to or from a public or general, active treatment hospital. You must be ill or injured and transported in a ground vehicle licensed under the Ambulance Services Act. Coverage for Seniors will pay up to the maximum rate set by Alberta Health.

Note: Inter-facility transfers are not covered under Alberta Blue Cross Coverage for Seniors. Inter-facility transfers are covered by Alberta Health Services.

Prescription drugs
Alberta Health covers 70 per cent of the cost of prescription drugs listed in the Alberta Drug Benefit List. You pay the other 30 per cent, up to a maximum of $25 per prescription or refill. The pharmacy bills Alberta Blue Cross directly.

Note: If an interchangeable (i.e. generic) drug product is available, Coverage for Seniors will pay the least-cost alternative price.

Purchase only the medicine you need, in quantities you will use. The maximum prescription quantity is a 100-day supply. It is best to be stabilized on the drug dose before getting this quantity. A pharmacist cannot dispense a larger quantity without pre-authorization from Alberta Blue Cross.

If you plan to travel outside Alberta and need medication for more than 100 days, talk to your pharmacist at least two weeks before your departure. This will give your pharmacist enough time to obtain authorization.

Coverage for Seniors also provides coverage for services received in other parts of Canada or outside the country. You may be asked to pay for these services at the time they are provided. To be reimbursed, send Alberta Blue Cross a completed and signed Alberta Blue Cross health claim form, with receipts attached. Benefits for services received out-of-country are paid in Canadian funds according to approved Alberta benefit rates.

Continuing care services

Alberta’s continuing care system provides Albertans with the health, personal care and accommodation services they need to support their independence and quality of life. Continuing care services are provided in three streams:

• home living;
• supportive living; and
• facility living.

Each stream can provide clients with a broad range of health and personal care, accommodation and hospitality services.

In addition, Alberta Health Services may be able to offer various models of care within these streams. This may include: group homes; special centres for individuals with dementia; transitional living settings; and various types of seniors’ day programs. Individuals who receive publicly-funded health services through Alberta Health Services will undergo a needs assessment to determine their care and service needs.

Home living/home care services

The home living stream is designed to support individuals living in their own homes, apartments, condominiums or other independent living options that require care.

Alberta Health Services is responsible for assessing clients and providing the home care services necessary to meet the unmet needs of individuals, of all ages who have varying degrees of short and long-term illness and/or disability.

Individuals can access home care services through self-referral or a referral made by friends, family, health care providers or other community agencies acting on their behalf.

Assessed home care services provided at no charge include professional case management, professional health care, personal care, caregiver support and respite care. Client charges may apply to the provision of assessed home and community support services.

Supportive living

Supportive living combines accommodation services with other supports and care. Supportive living services are designed to assist individuals in maintaining a level of independence. Supportive living is not intended for individuals who have complex health care needs.

In addition to providing a place to live, services in supportive living accommodations can include meals, housekeeping and social activities. Supportive living residents may receive home care services.

Facility living/long-term care centres
Long-term care facilities provide support to individuals who require 24/7 nursing support to meet medical needs associated with chronic disease or frailty. As part of the continuing care system, long-term care facility living provides room and board in a secure living arrangement along with personal care and support with activities of daily living.

All long-term care facilities across Alberta are operated by or under contract to Alberta Health Services. Some may be stand alone buildings; some may be in sites where a range of services are provided.

Health services provided in long-term care facilities are publicly funded under the following conditions:

- you must be eligible for registration with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan;
- you must have lived in Alberta for three consecutive years at any time previously; or
- you must have lived in Alberta for one year immediately prior to applying; and
- you must have been a resident of Canada for 10 years or more.

Residents of long-term care facilities do not pay for:

- prescription drugs as prescribed by a physician or ambulance services when the transfer is to or from a hospital.

Individuals living in long-term care facilities are responsible for paying accommodation charges for housing and hospitality services. Charges may vary according to the type of room. Charges change periodically. The rates as of July 1, 2015 are:
• $51.10/day for standard accommodation (three or four beds in one room)
• $53.85/day for semi-private accommodation (two individuals in one room)
• $62.25/day for private accommodation

Low-income seniors may be eligible for financial assistance through the Alberta Seniors Benefit program. For information, call 1-877-644-9992 or visit www.seniors.alberta.ca.

A person’s need for long-term care facility services is assessed by a healthcare professional from Alberta Health Services (AHS). Anyone can request an assessment. Once a request is made, an AHS Case Manager will meet with the person and discuss the situation. If a long-term care facility is determined to be the best support to meet the identified needs, AHS staff will work with the Case Manager, the individual and family to find the site that would best meet client’s needs. AHS’ goal is to make sure individuals get the right services in the right place in a timely manner.

For more information about long-term care accommodations, contact Alberta Health Services.

Elder abuse

Elder abuse is any action or inaction by self or others that jeopardizes the health or well-being of any older adult. It is divided into six categories: physical, emotional, financial, sexual, medication abuse or neglect. It may include the infliction of physical injury, restraint, exploitation, threats, ridicule, humiliation, forced isolation, or forced change in living arrangements. It may also include neglect; that is, the refusal or failure to care for an older person whether intentional or unintentional.

Protection for Persons in Care

The Protection for Persons in Care office addresses reports of abuse and administers the Protection for Persons in Care Act. This act promotes the safety and well-being of adult Albertans who receive care or support services from publicly funded service providers. The act requires that all service providers protect clients from abuse and maintain a reasonable level of safety. The act also requires that all abuse be reported. A complaints officer reviews every allegation reported to Protection for Persons in Care.

The Protection for Persons in Care office responds to reports of abuse of adults receiving care or support services from publicly funded service providers. This includes: hospitals, seniors’ lodges, nursing homes, mental health facilities, shelters and other supportive living settings.

To report abuse, call the Information and Reporting Line at 1-888-357-9339 8:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday to Friday.

For more information, call the number above or visit http://www.health.alberta.ca/services/protection-persons-care.html
Continuing Care Health Services Standards

The Continuing Care Health Services Standards apply to all publicly-funded continuing care health services regardless of whether they are provided directly by, or under contract to, Alberta Health Services.

Alberta Health is responsible for ensuring that health service standards are met. These standards apply where publicly-funded health care is provided, namely by home care providers and facility operators.

If you have concerns about the quality of health services provided through home care or in a publicly funded long-term care facility, raise them first with the provider and Alberta Health Services. See page 29 for contact information.

Supportive living and long-term care accommodation standards

The Government of Alberta ensures that supportive living and long-term care facilities meet accommodation standards set by the government. These standards cover services like meals, housekeeping and building maintenance. They help ensure that quality accommodation and related services are being provided to residents throughout the province. This is done by licensing supportive living accommodations and monitoring long-term care facilities for their compliance with the standards.

Supportive living and long-term care public reporting
The Government of Alberta has an online public reporting site for Albertans to use to see how individual supportive living and long-term care accommodations comply with the accommodation standards.

The public reporting site provides easy access to up-to-date information on each supportive living and long-term care accommodation, including:
• location and contact details;
• compliance with accommodation standards;
• supportive living licence status – accommodations with a full licence have complied with all accommodation standards. Accommodations with a conditional licence have a compliance action plan in place to meet all accommodation standards by a specified date; and
- verified complaints listed for three months after have they have been resolved.

Taxes

General information

Most types of income are taxable (including amounts paid to deceased individuals). Seniors may qualify for several federal and/or provincial tax credits within the tax system. Seniors eligible for the disability tax credit may also be eligible to claim additional medical expenses such as certain attendant care expenses. For more specific information for seniors on taxes, visit the Canada Revenue Agency website at http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/seniors/ or phone the general inquiry line at 1-800-959-8281.

GST credit

The Goods and Services Tax (GST) Credit is designed to offset the cost of the GST for individuals and families up to a certain income level.

To apply, you must file a tax return and complete the GST information section. If you are eligible, you will receive payments on the 5th of July, October, January and April. The credit is based on your net family income and if eligible, is paid to either you or your spouse/common law spouse, but not both.

Power of Attorney

Granting Power of Attorney gives another individual (called your attorney) the power to make decisions and act on your behalf. Power of Attorney is voluntary and limited to matters of property and finance. It does not allow someone to make personal or health decisions on your behalf. For information on guardianship or personal directives, see pages 15-18.

Limited versus general Power of Attorney

A limited Power of Attorney gives your attorney the power to handle certain financial affairs only; for example, your affairs at a particular bank.
A general Power of Attorney gives your attorney the power to handle all financial affairs, including applying for and administering federal and provincial benefits.

Power of Attorney/Enduring Power of Attorney
The following is a brief description of the differences between a Power of Attorney and an Enduring Power of Attorney. For more detailed information, visit the Alberta Justice and Attorney General website at http://justice.alberta.ca, and refer to Financial property protection and administration.

Power of Attorney
- you must be mentally competent to appoint an attorney;
- it takes effect immediately; and
- ends if you become mentally incapable of managing your affairs.

Enduring Power of Attorney
- specifically states that the Power of Attorney remains in effect should you become mentally incapable of managing your affairs; and
- can contain conditions, such as requiring a written statement from a physician indicating that a specific event has occurred.

Although not mandatory, you may wish to consult a lawyer for assistance in drafting your Power of Attorney document.

Last will and testament

A will is a written document that allows you to set out how your property is to be distributed after you die. A will allows you to name a person to act as your executor after your death and to make certain that your property is distributed according to your wishes. A will does not have any legal force or effect until after you die.

There are three different types of wills:
- formal will: prepared for you by a lawyer;
- holograph will: prepared by you and done in your handwriting; and
- will kit: forms obtained from stationery stores that you complete yourself.

If you require a lawyer or would like more information on wills or executors, contact the Lawyer Referral Service at 1-800-661-1095. See page 43 for more information.

What happens if you die without a will?

If you die without a will, your property will be distributed according to the provisions of the Intestate Succession Act. Information about this act is available in the Saying Farewell handbook.
