

Employment, Training and Career Services Directory Edmonton Region

Services for Vulnerable Individuals

Lives in Transition Inc. (LIT)

Address: Beatty Lofts, #111, 10265-107 Street, Edmonton, AB T5J 0B3

Email: gethelp@litinc.ca

Phone: 780-496-9224

Website: litinc.ca

Program Description:

This program assists women residing in the Edmonton Area and experiencing barriers to employment as a result of domestic violence. This 28-week program has three main components: understanding of family violence, life management skills, and employability skills and work life balance. Clients have access to on-site counselling services, workshops, community presentations and training opportunities such as Triple-P Parenting and financial empowerment. This program has a continuous intake process with a program starting every seven weeks

Candora Society of Edmonton

Pre-Employment Program

Address: 262 Riverview Crossing (formerly Abbottsfield Mall), 3210-118 Avenue, Edmonton, AB T5W 4W1

Email: info@candorasociety.com

Phone: 780-474-5011

Program Description:

This program provides a part-time, community-based initiative that helps women acquire and integrate personal management skills by providing employability sessions, paid and unpaid work experience, basic computer skills, EAL (English as an Alternate Language), literacy, and short training courses. Candidates must be female and willing to enter the workforce

PROJECT SEVFIN Inc.

P7

Address: Beatty Lofts, #111, 10265-107 Street, Edmonton, AB T5J 0B3

Email: info@projectsevfin.com

Phone: 587-414-6457

Website: projectsevfin.com

Program Description:

This program assists individuals aged 18+ residing in the Edmonton area who have been involved in the sex trade or have been sexually exploited. The goal is to increase employability skills and transition to employment or further education or training. This 28-week program has three main components: understanding of sexual exploitation, life management skills, and career and employability Skills and academic refresher. Clients have access to on-site counselling, workshops, community presentations and training opportunities such as computer training, Triple-P Parenting and financial empowerment. This program has a continuous intake process with a program starting every seven weeks.

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Edmonton, Alberta

Work for Women

Address: #900, 10242 105 Street, Edmonton, AB, T5J 3L5

Email: director@efryedmonton.ab.ca

Phone: 780-421-1175

Program Description:

This program provides employment and training information and support to women in the community who are in conflict with the law to assist them with obtaining mainstream employment and avoiding recidivism. The program includes opportunities to learn new skills: résumé writing, job search and interview skills, and training through workshops and one-on-one. Services are delivered at the Elizabeth Fry facility, women's institutions and halfway houses. This program has a continuous intake.

Norwood Child & Family Resource Centre

Financial Literacy Program

Address: 9516-114 Avenue, Edmonton, AB T5G 0K7

Phone: 780-471-3737

Website: www.norwoodcentre.com

Program Description:

This 12-week, part-time financial empowerment program is for low-income women and couples to facilitate long-term financial skill development and assist in acquiring and maintaining assets which will lead to financial stability and independence. This program provides a matched saving component.