International Graduate Category criteria include but are not limited to:

Alberta Employer criteria

As an Alberta Employer, you must:

- Be incorporated or registered by or under an act of the legislature of a province or the Parliament of Canada and operating as a business that has an established production capability, plant or place of business in Alberta.
- Provide a permanent, full-time job offer to the candidate that:
 - Falls under one of the following National Occupational Classification (NOC) skill levels: www5.hrsdc.gc.ca/NOC/English/NOC/2011/Welcome.aspx
 - » NOC 0: Management occupations
 - » NOC A: Occupations that usually require university education.
 - » NOC B: Occupations that usually require college education.
 - » NOC C: Occupations that usually require specific training and/or secondary education. Please note only candidates working in a NOC C occupation must complete a designated language test with scores that meet language requirements. More details are listed under Candidate criteria below.
 - » Some occupations are not eligible for consideration under the International Graduate Category. Please review the list of ineligible occupations (list updated June 20, 2014). If the occupation your potential Candidate is performing is on this list, you are not eligible to apply to the AINP under this category.
 - Albertacanada.com/files/albertacanada/AINP_SRS_IntlpostGrad_ineligible_occList.pdf
 - Meets Alberta's employment and wage standards, work.alberta.ca/employment-standards.html
 - Does not conflict with existing collective bargaining agreements. The AINP will not approve an application if there is a labour dispute in progress that may directly or indirectly involve the employer or the candidate.
- Show you are offering wages and benefits to the candidate that meet industry standards.
 - Visit the ALIS website for wage and benefit standards. occinfo.alis.alberta.ca/occinfopreview/info/browse-wages.html

Who is not eligible?

- Individuals working in occupations on the International Graduate Category ineligible occupations list (PDF).
 Albertacanada.com/AINP_SRS_IntlpostGrad_ineligible_occList_with_trades.pdf
 - Note: Supervisors, foremen and tradespeople, working in a Compulsory or Optional Trade in Alberta (including Chefs, Cooks, and Line Cooks) are eligible under the Strategic Recruitment Stream, Compulsory and Optional Trades Category.
- Refugee claimants, or individuals involved in a federal appeal or removal process. It is not the mandate of the AINP to intervene in the federal refugee claim, appeal or removal process.
- Live-in Caregivers currently living in Canada.
- Temporary Foreign Workers working and residing in a province other than Alberta.
- International students studying in Canada and doing co-op work placements or internships as part of their study program.

How to apply to the Employer-Driven Stream

You may only have one active AINP application in process; multiple AINP applications for multiples categories will not be accepted for processing.

- 1. The Alberta Employer and the Candidate must make sure they meet the criteria for the category to which they are applying. If the Alberta Employer or the Candidate do not meet the criteria the application will be declined.
 - Skilled Worker Category criteria
 - International Graduate Category criteria
 - · Semi-Skilled Category criteria

Albertacanada.com/opportunity/programs-and-forms/expired-ainp.aspx

- 2. The Alberta Employer and the Candidate must follow the instructions on the document checklist to prepare a complete application for their category.
 - Skilled Worker Category document checklist and application forms
 - International Graduate Category document checklist and application forms
 - Semi-Skilled Worker Category document checklist and application forms
 - Also review the important information about applying to the AINP section on the Application forms page for tips on how to prepare your application. Albertacanada.com/ainp-forms
- 3. The Alberta Employer or the Candidate mails the complete application to the AINP. Incomplete applications will not be processed, and will be returned. A complete application is an application that includes all of the required documents listed on the document checklist. Clearly indicate the category to which you are applying on your mailing envelope. Complete applications can be mailed to:

Employer-Driven Stream Category Alberta Immigrant Nominee Program Government of Alberta Suite 940, ATB Place North Tower 10025 Jasper Avenue Edmonton, Alberta T5J 1S6

- 4. The AINP will assess the application. Review the AINP processing and inventory page for the most current information on application processing and status. Albertacanada.com/processingtime
- 5. If approved, the Candidate will become a Provincial Nominee. The Provincial Nominee will receive a nomination package in the mail. The Provincial Nominee should make sure they read all documents in the package. The information in the package will tell the Provincial Nominee and their dependants how to apply to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). The Alberta Employer will also receive notification that the application has been approved.
- 6. The Provincial Nominee submits their Application for Permanent Residence to IRCC along with supporting documents. Visit the after you are nominated section of the website for more information. cic.gc.ca/english/immigrate/provincial/apply-how.asp

Albertacanada.com/opportunity/programs-and-forms/ainp-after-nomination.aspx

7. IRCC will conduct health, criminality and security checks. If you and your dependants meet all required checks, IRCC would then issue the permanent resident visa(s) for immigration to Alberta.

Note: The availability of AINP streams and categories is dependent upon application volumes and labour market needs. The AINP reserves the right to close application intake for any AINP stream or category at any time, without prior notice. Further, the AINP may decline to consider applications to closed or suspended streams or categories, regardless of when the applications were submitted. Changes to the AINP, including notice of suspension or closure of its streams and categories are available on the AINP news page and/or the AINP application forms page. The AINP is not obligated to assess/process any applications submitted. Applications to the AINP are treated as anexpression of interest, and as such, will be processed according to quality of the application (completeness, eligibility), labour market information, occupational supply and demand forecasting, AINP application volumes, and / or any other factors at the AINP's discretion. By submitting an application to the AINP you acknowledge and agree that your application may not be processed in the order received, or at all. Further, the decision to assess / process any particular application, and the outcome of any such assessment / processing, is at the AINP's sole discretion. Program criteria are eligibility minimums, and meeting program criteria does not guarantee that an applicant's application will be assessed, processed, or granted.

Post-Graduate Worker or International Graduate Categories under either the Strategic Recruitment Stream or Employer-Driven Stream

Ineligible occupations list

Review this list carefully. If your current occupation is on this list, you are NOT eligible to apply under the Post-Graduate Worker Category or the International Graduate Category. Most occupations identified by the National Occupational Classification (NOC system) as being NOC skill level 0, A, B, or C are eligible.

NOC skill level D occupations are not eligible.

For information on the 2011 NOC system, visit www5.hrsdc.qc.ca/noc/English/noc/2011/welcome.aspx

You are NOT eligible to apply if you are currently working in:

- a NOC skill level D occupation. All NOC skill level D occupations are included on this list.
- a NOC skill level 0, A, B or C occupation included on this list.
 - Supervisors, foremen and tradespeople, working in an occupation designated as a Compulsory or Optional Trade in Alberta are not eligible to apply under these categories.
 - » If you are working in a compulsory trade occupation you must apply under the Strategic Recruitment Stream Compulsory and Optional Trades Category
 - » If you are working in an optional trade occupation, you may only apply under the Strategic Recruitment Stream Compulsory and Optional Trades Category or the Alberta Work Experience Category.

If you are not eligible to apply under the Post-Graduate Worker Category or the International Graduate Category, you may be eligible for other AINP categories under the Strategic Recruitment Stream or Employer-Driven Stream. Information on other available AINP categories is available on the AINP website.

^{*}Refers to a NOC Code which consists of some eligible occupations and some ineligible occupations. The 'Occupation Title' column specifies which occupations are ineligible for each of these NOC Codes. If your occupation falls under one of these NOC Codes and is not listed in the 'Occupation Title' column, you may be eligible under the Post-Graduate and International Graduate Categories.
