

Executive Council

ACCOUNTABILITY STATEMENT

This Business Plan for the three years commencing April 1, 2001 was prepared under my direction in accordance with the Government Accountability Act and the government's accounting policies. All of the government's policy decisions as at April 3, 2001 with material economic or fiscal implications of which I am aware have been considered in preparing the Business Plan.

The Ministry's priorities outlined in the Business Plan were developed in the context of the government's business and fiscal plans. I am committed to achieving the planned results laid out in this Business Plan.

[ORIGINAL SIGNED]

Ralph Klein, Premier

INTRODUCTION

Programs within Executive Council that report to the Premier include Office of the Premier/General Administration and the Public Affairs Bureau.

OFFICE OF THE PREMIER/GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

The Office of the Premier/General Administration will continue to provide responsive support to the Premier, while maintaining open communication between the Office and Albertans. Programs for senior international visitors, provincial government ceremonial events, and protocol advice will continue to be provided. Support for policy co-ordination and business planning will also be provided. In addition, administrative support will be provided to Executive Council, its Members and Committees and the Office of the Lieutenant Governor with a focus on efficiency, effectiveness and economy.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS BUREAU BUSINESS PLAN

MISSION / VISION

The Public Affairs Bureau helps the government in its ongoing dialogue with Albertans by providing quality, coordinated and cost-effective communications and consulting services.

CORE BUSINESSES

1. Help government ministries communicate with Albertans

- supply professionals to government departments to develop and implement communications programs
- provide communications planning and consulting support to government
- coordinate government communications to and from Albertans on priority areas, for government initiatives, and during public emergencies
- provide specialized writing and editing services to government
- help government departments purchase communications support services, including advertising, printing and graphic design

2. Provide Albertans with two-way access to government

- manage the RITE telephone system, to give Albertans toll-free access to government
- manage the two-way flow of information through the Alberta Government Internet Home Page and Alberta Connects, manage the province-wide distribution of news releases and provide technical support for major government news conferences and announcements

3. Publish and sell Alberta's laws and other materials

- publish and sell Alberta's laws and other government materials, and operate the Queen's Printer Bookstores in Edmonton and Calgary

GOALS AND STRATEGIES

This plan highlights an increased focus on using electronic communications to deliver information to the public and within government. It also features a growing focus on communicating with Albertans about government actions and results in priority areas. We will continue to align our strategies with the priorities set out by government as a whole. Working from the Bureau's network of staff assigned to communications branches throughout government, we will also focus on encouraging and leading opportunities for cross ministry partnerships.

GOAL 1: INCREASE COMMUNICATIONS WITH ALBERTANS IN THE AREAS THEY IDENTIFY AS TOP PRIORITIES

- Increase the public's awareness and use of the Alberta Connects program and investigate new ways of using Alberta Connects, such as phone technologies and television.
- Work with ministries to respond to Albertans' requests for information in priority areas like health care, education, infrastructure, and economic development.

GOAL 2: MAKE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION MORE ACCESSIBLE TO ALBERTANS

- Redesign the Government Internet Home Page to better respond to user needs, improve access to information and to set the stage for the Alberta One-Window Initiative.
- Work to refine and improve new paper and electronic format RITE telephone directories.

GOAL 3: IMPROVE THE EFFICIENCY AND COORDINATION OF COMMUNICATIONS ACROSS GOVERNMENT

- Provide an on-line order system for use by government offices ordering Alberta Government stationery items.
- Relocate the Queen's Printer Bookstore operations closer to customers, government centre and central Bureau offices.
- Update the Bureau's Human Resource Plan to include initiatives such as working to place Public Affairs Officer Interns and Information Technology co-op students into continuing positions.

GOAL 4: DELIVER PRODUCTS AND SERVICES THAT ALLOW US TO MEET OR EXCEED REVENUE PROJECTIONS AND CUSTOMERS' NEEDS

- Work with Alberta Justice and Attorney General to compile and publish a revised version of the Statutes of Alberta (RSA 2000).
- Redesign the Bookstore's Internet site to provide customized access, improved navigation features and a streamlined e-commerce function.

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

PUBLIC SATISFACTION WITH GOVERNMENT COMMUNICATIONS IN PRIORITY AREAS

This measure, which began in 1999-2000, is related to Goal One. It rates Albertans' overall satisfaction with the type of information they receive, either directly from the government or through other sources, in areas they have previously identified as priorities.
