

Executive Council

ACCOUNTABILITY STATEMENT

This Business Plan for the three years commencing April 1, 2000 was prepared under my direction in accordance with the Government Accountability Act and the government's accounting policies. All of the government's policy decisions as at February 1, 2000 with material economic or fiscal implications of which I am aware have been considered in preparing the Business Plan.

The Ministry's priorities outlined in the Business Plan were developed in the context of the government's business and fiscal plans. I am committed to achieving the planned results laid out in this Business Plan.

In addition, administrative support will be provided to Executive Council, its Members and Committees and the Office of the Lieutenant Governor with a focus on cost and effectiveness.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS BUREAU BUSINESS PLAN

MISSION / VISION

The Public Affairs Bureau helps the government in its ongoing dialogue with Albertans by providing quality, coordinated and cost-effective communications and consulting services.

CORE BUSINESSES

- Supplying professionals to government departments to develop and implement communications programs;
- Providing communications planning and consulting support to government;
- Coordinating government communications to and from Albertans on government initiatives, and during public emergencies;
- Providing specialized writing and editing services to government;
- Managing the RITE telephone system, to give Albertans toll-free access to government;
- Publishing and selling Alberta's laws and other government materials, and operating the Queen's Printer Bookstores in Edmonton and Calgary;
- Managing the two-way flow of information through the Alberta Government Internet Home Page and Alberta Connects, managing the province-wide distribution of Alberta Government news releases and providing technical support for major government news conferences and announcements; and
- Helping government departments purchase communications support services, including advertising, printing and graphic design.

GOALS AND STRATEGIES

Bureau staff will continue to look for shared service and other cooperative opportunities, in association with ministries across government. This commitment to teamwork includes the reassignment of staff and resources, as needed, to support both Albertans' communications priorities and the recent government reorganization.

As part of that commitment, the Bureau's four main goals have been adjusted for the 2000-03 Business Plan. A new Goal One has been introduced to better communicate government plans and initiatives in the areas Albertans have identified as their top priorities. The goal of making all government information accessible to Albertans remains unchanged while the two previously separate goals of improving the efficiency of communications and the coordination of communications across government have combined into Goal Three. Finally, the wording for Goal Four has been adjusted to better reflect the customer driven elements of Queen's Printer Bookstore operations.

We will continue to align the Bureau's goals and strategies with the priorities set out by government, as well as with feedback from clients, customers and Albertans. Because of the supporting role communications plays across government, our efforts contribute to all of the government's overall goals and objectives.

GOAL 1: INCREASE COMMUNICATIONS WITH ALBERTANS IN THE AREAS THEY IDENTIFY AS TOP PRIORITIES

Better communicate government plans and progress in key priority areas

- Use the Alberta Connects program to deliver comprehensive information about government plans and progress in the areas Albertans have identified as their top priorities.
- Work with ministries to respond to Albertans' requests for information about health care, education, infrastructure, fiscal priorities and other important areas.

GOAL 2: MAKE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION MORE ACCESSIBLE TO ALBERTANS

Ensure that Albertans have quick access to information about all government programs and services

- Use the Alberta Connects program to help Albertans access government information, ask questions and provide feedback through the Internet, e-mail and toll-free phone lines.
- Expand the government's use of Internet technology to open two-way dialogues with Albertans, including moderated on-line discussion groups.
- Further develop the navigation and design elements of the Alberta Government Internet Home Page to give Albertans improved information access and feedback options.
- Continue to build on the resources and general information available to Albertans through RITE, including the development of a more comprehensive and user-friendly directory.

GOAL 3: IMPROVE THE EFFICIENCY AND COORDINATION OF COMMUNICATIONS ACROSS GOVERNMENT

Streamline and improve processes in place to communicate with Albertans and across government

- Look for opportunities to deliver communications support through "clustered" services or shared resources among ministries.
- Ensure that communications branch business plans respond to ministry and client needs, as identified in performance measure surveys.

- Update the Bureau's Human Resource Plan to include:
 - ensuring that staff have the in-house training opportunities and supports they need to meet stated client and ministry needs;
 - creating a human resource intranet for Bureau staff; and
 - implementing a Public Affairs Bureau succession plan, developing competency profiles for key positions and developing a set of management competencies.

GOAL 4: DELIVER PRODUCTS AND SERVICES THAT ALLOW US TO MEET OR EXCEED REVENUE PROJECTIONS AND CUSTOMERS NEEDS

Produce the products our customers want while meeting Queen's Printer Bookstore revenue projections

- Work with Alberta Justice and Attorney General to compile and publish a revised version of the Statutes of Alberta (RSA 2000).
- Research market viability for new electronic products, including codes, rules, indexes, annotations and other legislation-related materials such as historical Orders in Council.
- Actively pursue partnerships with ministries to co-publish publications.

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The Bureau's measures reflect the changing goals and priorities of our clients, our customers and Albertans. Changes and additions new to the 2000-03 Business Plan include the addition of a new Goal One and new measures for the reworded Goal Four, as discussed in last year's plan.

PUBLIC SATISFACTION WITH GOVERNMENT COMMUNICATIONS IN PRIORITY AREAS

Work will begin to establish an appropriate measure for the new Goal One and to collect the necessary data. The measure will focus on public satisfaction with information received in priority areas. Data will be collected as part of the Bureau's next performance measurement survey cycle, scheduled to begin in March 2000. Initial benchmarks and targets for the new measure will be included in the Bureau's 1999-2000 Annual Report.

New measure to be developed.

ALBERTA CORPORATE SERVICE CENTRE (ACSC)

A recently established program of Executive Council, the ACSC is accountable for the provision of administrative services to ministries enabling them to focus solely on the delivery of programs and services to Albertans. Cost reduction by ministries over the period 2000-01 through 2002-03 are expected as a result of the consolidation and outsourcing of non-strategic administrative activities by the ACSC.
