Description of Charter	The mission outlined in the Foundations for the Future Charter seeks to, "provide a safe and caring environment where academic excellence, character development and staff leadership are valued and fostered." In delivering the Alberta Programs of Study through the lens of their unique Direct Instructional Framework, their distinct approach fosters the personal development of every child. FFCA's innovative approaches to teaching and learning allow their students to evolve from supported learners to independent thinkers who have internalized a deep understanding of character and leadership. The culture of FFCA is a relational one involving collaboration, engagement and a strong commitment to partnering with their parents in support of student learning.
