

Alberta Teaching Profession Commission

Statistics Q1 2024/25

Introduction

The Alberta Teaching Profession Commission is committed to transparency and fairness in the handling of competency and conduct complaints about teachers or teacher leaders. The following update provides information on the number of complaints about teachers or teacher leaders in the first quarter (Q1) of the 2024/25 fiscal year and the commission's activities during this time period.

New complaints

A total of 56 new conduct or competency complaints were made about teachers or teacher leaders in Q1. For a detailed summary of the disciplinary process, see: Alberta Teaching Profession Commission – Disciplinary process

Transition reports

A total of 6 transition reports from the Registrar were provided to the Alberta Teaching Profession Commission in Q1.

Decisions following preliminary inquiry

In the first quarter, a total of 56 decisions after preliminary inquiry were made. Of those decisions, 70 per cent were referred to investigation, 23 per cent were dismissed and 7 per cent were referred to a resolution process.

	No further action	Dispute resolution	Mediation	Investigation	Withdrawal
Total	13	2	2	39

Dispute resolution/mediation

In the first quarter, a total of 12 decisions after a resolution process were made. Of those decisions, 100 per cent were resolved.

	Resolved	Investigation	Withdrawal
Total	12

Investigations

In the first quarter, a total of 48 decisions after investigation were made. Of these decisions, 19 per cent were referred to hearing, 62 per cent were dismissed and 19 per cent were referred to a resolution process.

	No further action	Dispute resolution	Hearing	Consent resolution agreement	Expedited process	Withdrawal
Total	30	9	9

Summary of decisions

In total, the commissioner issued 116 decisions in the first quarter. Fifty-five complaints were resolved (30 after investigation, 12 after a resolution process and 13 after preliminary inquiry). There were no complaints withdrawn in this time period.