Oldman Dam

Provincial Recreation Area

Welcome to Oldman Dam Provincial Recreation Area.

Please enjoy your stay and feel free to visit throughout the year. Note that campgrounds and some day use areas are operated on a seasonal basis. Please check albertaparks.ca and click on “Find a Park” to find opening and closing dates. Windy Point, Boulder Run, Todd Creek, North Fork, Island View, Cottonwood and Castle River Day Use Areas are open to foot access all year round; vehicle access is permitted during the summer season.

Cottonwood Campground

Open summer season only; first-come, first-serve and by reservation through reserve.albertaparks.ca or by calling 1-877-537-2757; potable water available for the summer season.

Enjoy shady, quiet, riverside camping, just minutes from the Oldman Reservoir and 10 minutes from the Town of Pincher Creek. There are 82 campsites under a lush grove of cottonwood trees, available first come-first serve and through reserve.albertaparks.ca. There are both powered and basic sites to choose from! Firewood available for sale.

Castleview Campground

Open year round; first-come, first-serve camping and by reservation through reserve.albertaparks.ca or by calling 1-877-537-2757. Potable water available.

Enjoy this campground with all its amenities: potable water, power, dump station, showers and flush toilets. Only minutes from the boat launch at Windy Point along the Oldman Dam Reservoir, or world class fishing along the Oldman River.

Three Rivers Group Camp

Available summer season by reservation only through reserve.albertaparks.ca or by calling 1-877-537-2757.

Accommodate your family and friends for an outdoor gathering along the beautiful Oldman River downstream of the reservoir. The camp includes a shelter, picnic tables, pit toilets and plenty of room for trailers, recreation vehicles and tents.

Windy Point and North Fork Campgrounds

Enjoy small, quiet first-come, first-serve camping with basic service.

Note

Some garbage and pit toilet facilities may be closed during the winter months. Please enjoy your stay!
