

Questions and Answers

Why is there an engagement on safety standards?

We want to hear from you about safety in your homes.

How can I participate in the engagement?

- 1) You can go to the website humanservices.alberta.ca/pddconsultation and fill out a questionnaire, or print it off and mail it in.
- 2) You can go to a Community Conversation Forum.
- 3) Visit the website to learn where the forums are.

What will the Forum be like?

The forums will be like an open house. You will be able to share your ideas and talk to people if you want to.

Who can attend the forums?

Anyone can go to a forum. They are FREE to attend.

How do I register for a forum?

You do not need to register before you go.

Will there be speakers at the forums?

There will not be any speakers. People are welcome to answer questions and talk to members of the Consultation Team.

What will happen after the engagement?

A report about what people told us will be written and put on the PDD Safety Standards consultation website.
