

Law Enforcement Review Board – May 2021 hearings

April 23, 2021

The Law Enforcement Review Board will hear final arguments on the following appeals by Webex.

If you wish to observe these hearings, please contact the board office for further information.

Calgary appeal

May 4, 2021 (9:30 a.m.)

- Const. M. Strong was suspended with pay while he was the subject of an investigation. When Const. Strong returned to work, he alleged that he was denied shift differential and that his ability to write an exam was delayed. Const. Strong appealed these administrative decisions on the basis that they were disguised discipline. The board will hear part one of this matter to determine if the administrative decisions were disguised discipline.

Edmonton appeal

May 11, 2021 (9:30 a.m.)

- Mr. C. Babchishin and Ms. L. Keith filed complaints alleging that officers conducted an inadequate investigation into the death of their son. They further allege that officers failed to provide them with updates and did not respond to their requests that an officer speak with them.

The Law Enforcement Review Board, an independent body established pursuant to the Police Act in 1973, reviews public complaints about police officer conduct and appeals from police officers on disciplinary action.
