

Superintendent of Insurance

Notice

Notice Number:	01-2024
Title:	Consumer Alert: Caution Against Unlicensed Insurer-NUN2X3
Date:	March 1, 2024

Purpose

The purpose of this notice is to warn Albertans about an unscrupulous company and/or individuals purporting to be a licensed insurance company in Alberta and offering automobile insurance for sale.

The perpetrators are operating under the name of Nun2x3 Vehicle Insurance Company, and their services may be sold via Nun2x3direct.com. No registered corporation in Alberta includes “Nun2x3” in its name or tradename. Neither Nun2x3 Vehicle Insurance Company, nor any entity name including “Nun2x3” is licensed to provide insurance in Alberta.

It is difficult to ascertain where the perpetrators are located and the regions they are targeting, as they are reaching consumers through the internet. The Superintendent of Insurance has received multiple inquiries from Albertans regarding whether Nun2x3 is a legitimate licensed insurer in Alberta. Some Albertans have been provided with financial responsibility cards (“pink cards”) bearing the name of Nun2x3.

If an Albertan is relying on a pink card issued by Nun2X3, they are not covered by insurance, and they should park their car immediately until they arrange valid insurance. They should also report this fraud to their local police.

When purchasing insurance products online or in-person, consumers should always confirm the insurance company and their agent hold a valid license by visiting the following websites:

- for insurance companies: Insurance companies in Alberta | Alberta.ca
- for insurance agents or agencies: Licensing \(abccouncil.ab.ca\)
