

Botulism Immune Globulin Intravenous (Human) – BabyBIG®

Revision Date: September 17, 2018

Rational for update: Updated process to access product.

Please consult the Product Prescribing Information¹ for further information about this product.

Manufacturer	Baxalta Inc. Weslake Village, California. Distributed for Infant Botulism Treatment and Prevention Program, California Department of Public Health
Authorization and access	This product is not stocked in the Provincial Vaccine Depot, therefore, special authorization and access procedures must be followed: Infant Botulism Immune Globulin Intravenous (Baby-IV®) use must be approved and accessed via the Zone Medical Officer of Health (MOH). Refer to: Public Health Notifiable Disease Management Guidelines . www.health.alberta.ca/professionals/notifiable-diseases-guide.html
Indications for use of botulism immune globulin	Treatment of infant botulism caused by toxin types A or B <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Administer as soon as clinical diagnosis of infant botulism is made.• Use for infants younger than one year of age. For further information about the disease and reporting requirements refer to the Public Health Notifiable Disease Management Guidelines – Botulism . ²
Dose	Refer to: Product Prescribing Information ¹ Note: This is a treatment product administered under the direction of a physician in an acute care setting.
Route	Intravenous infusion Refer to: Product Prescribing Information ¹
Schedule	Refer to: Product Prescribing Information ¹

References

¹ Infant Botulism Treatment and prevention Program, California Department of Public Health. Botulism Immune Globulin Intravenous (Human) – BabyBIG. Prescribing Information.
<http://www.fda.gov/BiologicsBloodVaccines/BloodBloodProducts/ApprovedProducts/LicensedProductsBLAs/FractionatedPlasmaProducts/ucm089339.htm>

² Alberta Health and Wellness. Botulism. In Public Health Notifiable Disease Management Guidelines.
www.health.alberta.ca/professionals/notifiable-diseases-guide.html