To all Authorized Employers:

Re: CPOIP April 25 - July 7, 2022 Offered by Lac La Biche County

The Community Peace Officer Induction Program (CPOIP) will be offered by Lac La Biche County from April 25 to July 7, 2022. The partnership between the JSG Training Academy and Lac La Biche County continues to make CPOIP training more accessible to authorized employers and support the Government of Alberta’s mandate to ensure safe and secure communities for all Albertans. To register visit: https://www.laclabichecounty.com/our-services/peace-officers/law-enforcement-training-program.

Course Details and Registration:

Dates: April 25 – July 7, 2022, Monday to Thursday, 0800 – 1800 hrs daily
Location: Portage College, Lac La Biche
Cost: $8000 + GST, includes lodging (self-pay fees are $9500 +GST).

Food is the responsibility of the participants (accommodation includes kitchens)

Up to 3 self-pay spaces will be available for this course. These are candidates who are not already employed by a municipality. This unique option will allow for interested persons to apply positions throughout the Province upon graduation.

Registration: Opens February 28, 2022

The Lac La Biche County CPOIP program is not subsidized by the Government of Alberta but is approved by the JSG Training Academy and the Peace Officer Program. It will provide the required training elements and allow all successful candidates to obtain their Level I Community Peace Officer appointment. The cost of the training will also include speed measurement (RADAR/LiDAR) certification and the Emergency Vehicle Operations Course (EVOC) certification.
