Note: Trail access may be amended, modified or closed by an officer in response to fire, fire hazard, flooding, wildlife or other environmental and safety concerns. Please ensure you have the current information on the area to which you are travelling and obey all posted signs and notices.

Liability Disclaimer - This brochure is provided for information purposes and to advise you of the many rules relating to trail use and camping. Use of the trail system is entirely at your own risk. The trails have not been classified by degree of difficulty and little or no maintenance is done on these trails: natural and man-made hazards may exist. The trail system can be difficult and physically challenging and conditions may change due to weather and other factors. For example, trails that may be easy to traverse under dry or frozen conditions may be hazardous and/or impassable under spring thaw or wet conditions. It is up to users of the trail system to learn the necessary skills for their safe enjoyment and to exercise caution in potentially hazardous areas.
