

Nov. 24, 2023

Investigations concluded on three files

The Alberta Serious Incident Response Team (ASIRT) has completed its investigations into three separate incidents and released the executive director and assistant executive director's reports on them.

On July 25, 2019, pursuant to Sec. 46.1 of the Police Act, ASIRT was directed to investigate a Rocky Mountain House RCMP officer-involved shooting. ASIRT's investigation is now complete.

The assistant executive director's full report can be accessed online.

On Jan. 11, 2020, ASIRT was directed to investigate a Cold Lake RCMP officer-involved shooting. ASIRT's investigation is now complete.

The assistant executive director's full report can be accessed online.

On Sept. 28, 2022, pursuant to the agreement between ASIRT and the Yukon government, ASIRT was directed to investigate a Whitehorse RCMP officer-involved shooting. ASIRT's investigation is now complete.

The executive director's full report can be accessed online.

ASIRT's mandate is to effectively, independently and objectively investigate incidents involving Alberta's police that have resulted in serious injury or death to any person, as well as serious or sensitive allegations of police misconduct.

Media inquiries may be directed to:

ASIRT media line
780-641-9099