

Victim Impact Statement

A Victim Impact Statement gives you an opportunity to tell the court how you have been affected by the crime. Victim Impact Statements are voluntary. Contact your local Victim Services Unit if you have any questions about submitting your Victim Impact Statement.

What can be included in a Victim Impact Statement?

- How the crime has affected you:
 - emotionally
 - physically
 - financially
- Fears for your safety or the safety of your family
- You can draw a picture, write a poem or a letter to include in your statement if it helps you express how the crime affected you

What you can request as part of your Victim Impact Statement?

- Read your statement in the presence of a support person that you choose
- Have a picture with you that was taken before the crime

What cannot be included in a Victim Impact Statement?

- Anything about the crime or the accused that is not directly related to the crime
- Anything that has not been proven in court
- Anything the accused wasn't found guilty of
- Anything about anyone who was part of the investigation or prosecution (police, court workers, lawyers, etc.)
- Any opinion about the sentence, unless approved by the court
- Any information you do not want the accused or the public to know

Submit your Victim Impact Statement to the courthouse

- Tell your local Victim Services Unit that you are going to submit a Victim Impact Statement
 - The Victim Services Unit can help you understand the process
- Get the Victim Impact Statement form from the Victim Services Unit, or go online and download the statement: Victim Impact Statement form
- Complete the statement
 - If you want to read or present the statement in court, check the “I would like to present my statement in court” on the statement
 - Make sure you sign and date the Victim Impact Statement
 - Make a copy of the completed statement to keep for your records
- Submit the statement
 - If you received the statement from the Victim Services Unit;
 - Put the statement in the Victim Impact Statement envelope and seal the envelope
 - Make sure all of the information on the outside of the Victim Impact Statement envelope has been added
 - Put the Victim Impact Statement envelope in another envelope that is addressed to the courthouse.
- Mail or deliver the envelope to the nearest courthouse
 - If you downloaded the statement, you can either;
 - Email the statement to the courthouse where the trial will be held
 - Mail or Deliver the statement to the courthouse where the trial will be held
 - Emails and addresses can be found at: www.alberta.ca/victim-impact-statement

Please Note

- The accused could be sentenced at any time so submit your statement quickly
- Submit your Victim Impact Statement to the courthouse
- The Victim Impact Statement is not used to apply for financial support
- The accused and their lawyer will receive a copy of your Victim Impact Statement