PERFORMANCE MEASURES/INDICATORS

Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development has several methods of measuring its performance, including the following:

1. Reports on Department Performance
2. Secondary Indicators
3. Survey of Clients and Partners
4. Public Polling Data

1. REPORTS ON DEPARTMENT PERFORMANCE

The Department will report on performance by using available quantitative data and relevant qualitative data to assess progress. The Department will provide a detailed narrative record of its performance in its Annual Reports.

The Department will report on the strategies outlined under the Government of Alberta Business Plan's Aboriginal Goal (Goal 6) and the cross ministry priority (Aboriginal Policy Initiative).

The Ministry will work with all Ministries to improve the number of data sources with Aboriginal-specific data and the quality of that data. Improved data will be used by Ministries to report progress on improving the well-being and self-reliance of Aboriginal people.

The Department will undertake to develop and implement evaluations of pilot projects.

The Ministry will also provide Reports of the Metis Settlements Appeal Tribunal and the Metis Settlements Transition Commission.

2. SECONDARY INDICATORS

The Ministry will report on a number of secondary indicators that track economic and socio-demographic trends related to Aboriginal communities.

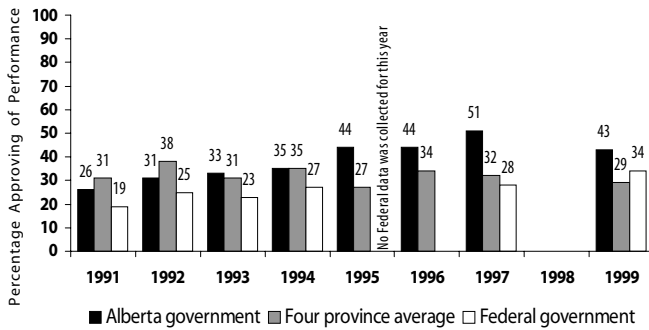

Aboriginal economic and socio-demographic data provide valuable information on the needs of the Aboriginal people in Alberta. This information will assist provincial Ministries in developing policies, programs and services to meet the needs of Aboriginal people and in monitoring the progress of these policies, programs and services. Information will be made available on request to Aboriginal organizations, industry, other governments and other partners.

3. SURVEY OF CLIENTS AND PARTNERS

The Department will undertake to develop and implement a survey of client satisfaction among Alberta Ministers, departments and agencies.

The Department will undertake to develop and implement a satisfaction survey among its partners including aboriginal leaders, governments, communities and organizations as well as private sector and other partners.

4. PUBLIC POLLING DATA

An important measure of how the Alberta government is performing in the areas of Aboriginal relations is public polling data that measures the performance of the provincial government based on the satisfaction level of Albertans. The polling data does not specifically rate the performance of the department, but tracks the performance of the whole government. However, the department does play an important role in supporting the Premier and his cabinet colleagues in achieving its Aboriginal goal.

Alberta's target is to maintain the government's public approval rating on Aboriginal relations on a par with the average of four other provinces (British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, and Ontario). These are the provinces closest to Alberta in terms of geography, history, economic base, social patterns and Aboriginal populations. Alberta's Aboriginal relations approval rating in 1999 was 43 per cent versus a four-province average of 29 per cent and a federal government rating of 34 per cent (see graph at left).

GOVERNMENT-WIDE GOALS

Much of the Ministry's work relates to Goal 6 of the Government Business Plan for 2001-04:

Goal 6: The well-being and self-reliance of Aboriginal people will be comparable to that of other Albertans.

As well, Ministry strategies contribute to the realization of the following government-wide goals:

Goal 2: Our children will be well cared for, safe, successful at learning and healthy (AA outcome 1.2)

Goal 7: Alberta will have a prosperous economy (AA outcome 1.2)

Goal 8: Our workforce will be skilled and productive (AA outcome 1.2)

NORTHERN ALBERTA DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

BUSINESS PLAN

INTRODUCTION

The mandate of the Northern Alberta Development Council (NADC), as outlined in the Act of Legislature, is to “investigate, monitor, evaluate, plan and promote practical measures to foster and advance general development in northern Alberta and to advise the Government thereon.” Northern Alberta includes 60% of Alberta’s land mass and has 10% of the Province’s population. It is resource rich, with 90% of Alberta’s forests, 100% of Canada’s oil sands development, nearly 40% of Alberta’s conventional oil and gas activity, and 20% of Alberta’s agricultural land.

The NADC reports to Cabinet through the Honourable Pearl Calahasen, Minister of Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development. Gary Friedel, MLA for Peace River, chairs the ten member Council who all live and work in northern Alberta. Current Council members include:

Art Avery (Fort McMurray)	Berkley Ferguson (Athabasca)	Pete Merlo (Grande Prairie)
Sandra Cardinal (Kikino)	Ernie Isley (Cold Lake)	Michael Procter (Peace River)
Doris Courtoreille (Kinuso)	Gerald McIvor (Whitecourt)	Al Toews (Fort Vermilion)

VISION

Northern Alberta has tremendous potential for economic growth. Our vision is to build on these opportunities to achieve a strong northern economy by training northerners, capturing benefits from resource development, adding value to commodities, diversifying the northern economy and by addressing key northern issues.

MISSION

To advance northern development through regional initiatives in partnership with the private sector, community-based organizations and other government agencies.

CORE BUSINESSES

The NADC acts as a catalyst to raise awareness of northern issues and opportunities, and as a facilitator to identify and work toward solutions to northern constraints. We address our goals by consulting with representatives of key northern organizations; undertaking initiatives, often in partnership with other government departments or northern stakeholders, which promote opportunities and address barriers; increasing awareness of education and career options; and offering post-secondary student bursaries to support skill development for northerners. Northerners and others with an interest in northern development are kept informed of our activities through meetings, news releases, a regular newsletter, event advertising and updates on the NADC web site.

The NADC facilitates the development of a thriving and progressive northern economy based on the following goals:

- Receive input into, identify and share information on priority northern development opportunities and issues through the Council's consultation processes;
- Promote opportunities and address barriers to the north's development; and
- Increase northern skill levels.

GOALS AND STRATEGIES

Our business plan is dynamic, as strategies are continually strengthened and refined through the consultation processes. Strategies are pursued that are supported by northern organizations. The NADC is positioned to address emerging opportunities and issues on an ongoing basis, and to adjust strategies as necessary.

We measure our performance based on our three goals. Goal 1 is measured by evaluations distributed at consultation and information events. For Goal 2, clients and project partners who were involved in strategic initiatives under Goal 2 and/or programs under Goal 3 are surveyed. Programs under Goal 3 are measured based on program statistics collected during the year.

APPENDIX

CROSS MINISTRY INITIATIVES

Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development contributes to the successful achievement of all the cross ministry initiatives that have been identified as priorities for the Government of Alberta. The department co-champions the Aboriginal Policy Initiative, and plays a role in each of the other top priority cross ministry initiatives.

ABORIGINAL POLICY INITIATIVE

Following consultations with Aboriginal leaders, communities, industry, local governments, the federal government and other interested Albertans, the proposed Aboriginal Policy Framework was approved by Cabinet in September 2000.

The Government of Alberta's Business Plan (2001-04) contains a new Aboriginal goal (Goal 6), as well as an Aboriginal Policy Initiative that is one of the four cross ministry initiatives for 2001-04.

The Aboriginal Policy Initiative is focused on:

- a) The development of Goal 6 ("The well-being and self-reliance of Aboriginal people will be comparable to that of other Albertans").
- b) Assisting other Ministries with the development of Aboriginal strategies, performance measures and data collection and analysis for Ministry business plans.
- c) The development of appropriate consultation procedures with respect to resource development on Crown land and the development of guidelines for traditional use studies.
- d) Analysis of gaps and overlaps in provincial, federal, municipal and Aboriginal community programs, services and funding in Alberta. The Aboriginal Policy Framework also introduces a commitment to develop an Aboriginal Capacity Building Strategy.
