

Alberta regional funding highlights

Budget 2023 secures Alberta's future by strengthening health care, addressing affordability, growing the economy and supporting job creation, and keeping Albertans and communities safe.

Funding helps build connectivity and improve access to essential services and supports across the province, ensuring all Albertans can enjoy the same quality of life regardless of where they live.

Central

- $108.2 million over three years for Highway 11 twinning between Sylvan Lake and Rocky Mountain House
- $77.2 million over three years for Highway 40 widening north of Hinton
- $27.3 million in 2023–24 for flood mitigation for the town of Drumheller
- $7.5 million in 2023–24 for the Sundre Wastewater Treatment Plant
- $2 million capital grant in 2023–24 for the Badlands Amphitheatre
- $1 million in 2023–24 is provided for planning an artifact storage facility at the Reynolds Alberta Museum in Wetaskiwin
- $60.6 million over three years for Highway 60 improvements over CN railway near Acheson
- $22.2 million over two years to address safety concerns at the intersection of Highway 16A and Range Road 20
- $3 million over three years for Strathcona Community Hospital expansion planning
- $1.5 million in planning funding for Sherwood Park Courthouse facilities
- $57 million over three years for Highway 1A upgrade
- $51 million over three years to replace the interchange at the Queen Elizabeth II Highway and Highway 566 at Balzac
- $20.6 million over the next two years for Queen Elizabeth II Highway and 40 Avenue half interchange near Airdrie

Lethbridge

- $11.2 million over three years to expand the renal dialysis program at the Chinook Regional Hospital
- $3 million in 2023–24 for Destination Project Phase 2 planning at the University of Lethbridge

North

- $60.5 million over three years for the Vinca Bridge Replacement
- $117 million over three years for the twinning of Highway 63 north of Fort McMurray
- $84.1 million over the next two years for twinning of Highway 40 south of Grande Prairie
- $12 million in additional funding for the existing Rural Remote Northern Program to support physician and recruitment retention
- $11.3 million over two years for power engineering and instrumentation lab development at Northwestern Polytechnic
- $9 million over the next three years for the Northern and Regional Economic Development Program

Red Deer

- $320.6 million over three years for the Red Deer Regional Hospital Centre redevelopment
- $83.4 million over two years for continued investment in the Red Deer Justice Centre
- $30 million in 2023–24 for the Red Deer Regional Airport expansion

South

- $94 million over three years for Highway 3 twinning between Taber and east of Burdett
- $2.6 million in 2023–24 in capital investment to manage water levels in the Mud Lake basin